

Extended Locations

X29835_en

There are a number of locations that are part of an adventure game. At each location there is a given set of characters and a given set of items. Print the list of locations on the appropriate format.

Input

The input starts with an integer N denoting the number of locations. The next N lines contain the name of the locations.

The next line contains an integer M denoting the number of characters. The next M lines contain the description of each character on the format “<character name>-<character level> <location name>”.

The next line contains an integer K denoting the number of items. The next K lines contain the description of each character on the format “<item name>-<item level> <location name>”.

Output

For each location in the order they appear in the input, print the location and its associated items and characters on the format specified in the example.
